ESTATE PLANNING COUNCIL OF RIVERSIDE COUNTY IS AMONG THE FIRST TO BE HONORED WITH THE 2015 COUNCIL OF EXCELLENCE AWARD BY THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF ESTATE PLANNERS & COUNCILS

Riverside, California, August 19, 2015 – The Estate Planning Council of Riverside County (EPCRC) has been awarded the highest honor available to an estate planning council affiliated with the National Association of Estate Planners & Councils (NAEPC), the Leonard H. Neiman and Walter Lee Davis, Jr. Council of Excellence Award. This newly established award was created to recognize five councils categorized by size that are successful in their efforts to provide a strong multi-disciplinary environment for estate planning professionals within their community and is intended to honor those councils that truly work to grow their programs and services and to provide an exceptional member experience.

“We are looking forward to the award ceremony scheduled on Wednesday, November 18, 2015, during the 52nd Annual NAEPC Advanced Estate Planning Strategies Conference in Amelia Island, Florida. The estate planning councils being honored exemplify the values of a successful membership association and embody the core value of NAEPC, a collaborative approach to estate planning,” NAEPC President Jordon N. Rosen, CPA, AEP® said.

The Council of Excellence Award is named for two individuals who truly sought to strengthen the bond between NAEPC and its affiliated councils during their terms on the board. Walter Lee Davis, Jr. served as president of the association in 2008 and was instrumental in forming the Council Relations Committee, a group of volunteer members who are charged with being a liaison between affiliates and the national association. Leonard H. Neiman served the association as a board member for over fifteen years and worked tirelessly to gather information about estate planning councils from around the country.

ABOUT ESTATE PLANNING COUNCIL OF RIVERSIDE COUNTY

The mission of the Estate Planning Council of Riverside County, a nonprofit organization founded in 1965, is to promote a multi-disciplinary approach in estate planning by supporting local estate planning professionals through continued education and encouraging a collaborative effort in serving its community. Now in its 50th year, the council delivers high quality educational programs and webinars by speakers with local and national expertise, business networking, and social events to its membership of attorneys, certified public accountants, life underwriters, trust officers, and other related professionals. EPCRC is a member of the National Association of Estate Planners & Councils, the leading professional organization for estate planners, which provides its 1,800 Accredited Estate Planner® designees, and 260 affiliated local estate planning councils and their 29,000 members with ongoing education and a forum for professional networking.
